Ye ſhulne ſow your ſede for hiſ halbeideouret of enemies, I ſhall put my face agaynt you, and ye ſhall fall before your enemies. And ye ſhulen be vnderlings to them that haue hatet you, ye ſhall flee, no man pursuing. And if ye will haue buxome ſon, I ſhall adde threante thornes and ſeven folde blame. And I ſhall all to braſt the hardaſes of you, I ſhall geue the heauen above you as yron, & the earth as braſe. About noughe ſhall you labouche, for the earth ſhall bring you forth no ſumple tree ſhall geue none apples to you. If that ye wenden agaynt me and will not leafe me, I ſhall adde hereto, ſeven folde with more for your ſinnes. I ſhall ſend amonge you beaſtes of the field, that deuour you and your beaſtes, I ſhall bring you into aild land, vnyceſt ſhall it be defart. And if that ye will not receiue loſe, but wenden agaynt me, I will also wenden agaynt ye ſynne, I ſhall haue you wher ſithes for your ſinnes. I ſhall leade in upon you, ſword and ſtong of my caueralline and upon the dead into Cities, I ſhall ſend pestilence in the middel of your ſon. So that neke (wheremore) that their bread in one fiftene, and yeld the ſugayled by weight, and ye ſhall eat, as no þeſt ſit. If that ye heare not þy ſayd thingas; þar wenden agaynt me, I ſhall wende agaynt you in a contrary woodnere, and þeal me you with ſeven plagues for ſouleſnes, ſo that they ſhulden eat the fleſh of our foemen and of your daughtres. And in do much my ſoule ſhall loath you, that I haue bring your Cities into wildernesſe, and by our ſanctuary I ſhall haue defert, ne I ſhall not oþer what receiue. A ſet orde of your mouth. And I ſhall diſperel your land, and enemis ſhall haue thereto, when they ſhulen inhabite it, I ſhall diſperel you among Hezthen, and draw my ſword after you. There be vngouerned and many moe, God ſkyde ſhould fall on them that breake his bidding, and diſperel his lawes, and his domes. Then ſith Christ become man, and bought vs with his ſaint blood, and has ſhewed vs so great loue, and geuen vs an easy law, of the best that ever knight be made, and to bring vs to the ioy of heaven, and we deliþe it and louen it noughe; what vengeance will be taken here afte, ſo long as he has ſuffered vs, and iomercifully abidden, when he ſhall come that righteouſe judge in the cloudes to deme this woordle. Therefore turne we vs to him, and leauue ſinne that he haue and oþer al thinges mayntayne his lawe that he conſirated with his death. For other lawes that men haue made, ſhoulde be demed at that day by the iust law of Christ, and the makyng that them made, and then we wonne that long life and that ioy that Paule ſpeaketh of, that eye ne ſee not, ne eare heard ne into man's hart ascended nor; the blife and ioy that God hath ordeneid to them that louen him and his lawes.

The faþyfull request of W.Swinderby.

Deare worshipfull firs in this world I beſteach you for Chriſtſes loue, as yet that I trouewouen Gods law & trouth (that in these daies is greatly bouie abacke) that they wullen vouchſafe theſe thiſges that I ſend you written to Gods worship, to let them be ſhewed in the Parliament as your wittes can beſt conceiue, to miſt worship to our God, and to ſhewing of the trouth and amēding of holy Church. My conſculions and mine appealē & other true matters of Gods law (giſ any man can ſinde therein errore, falſenesſe, or default, prouer by the law of Christ clearely to chriſten mens knowledge) I ſhall reuoke my wrong conceit, and by Gods law be amender: euer redy to hold with Gods law openly & priuily with Gods grace, and nothing to holde, teach, or mayneſtayne that is contrary to his law.

Of the procesſ, anſwertes, & condenmation of this woordle and true ſorauant of Christ, william Swinderby, poſtouche heard. What afterward became vpō him, I haue ſuretandy to ſay or affirme, whether he in p̄ſe died, or whether he ſcaped theyx handes, or whether he was burnd there is no certayne relatioune made. This remayneth out of doubt that during þe time of K. Richard. 2. no great harme was done unto him, which was to the yeare 1461, at what time K. Richard being wrongfullie depoſed, Beſty the 4. invaded the kingdome of England. About the beginning of whose reigne we read of a certaine parliament holden at London, mentioned alſo of Thomas Waldeſon (as is aboue ſpecified) in which parliament it was decreed that whosoeuer ſhewed themſelues to be fauouers of wikkidite they ſhould be apprehended, who at that time were called Lollards, and if ſo be they did obſtinate peruerere in that doctrine, they ſhould be deliuerec ouer unto the biſhop of the dioces, & froin him ſhould be committed to the correccio of the ſecular maſtiffate. This law (ſayth þe ſtory) broughte a certaine priſt unto puniſhment the ſame year, who was burnd in Smithfield in the preſence of a greate number. This we haue drawne out of a piece of an old ſtory, & it is moſt certayne that there ſuch a priſt was burnd for the affirmation of the true faith, but it doth not appearre by the ſtory, what the priſt's name was. Norwithstanding by diuers conjectures it apperecht unto me that his name was Swinderby that was forced to recame before the biſhop of Lincoln, þerby what is to be conſtru-red by the premisses, let other men iudge what they think. I haue nothing hercof exprefſely to affirme. This is plain to al men to iudge (which haue hercſene and read his ſtory) that if he were burnd, then the biſhops, friers & priſtis, which were the cauſes thereto, haue a great thing to anſweſe to the Lord, when he ſhall come to iudge of quicks and the dead, & ſeculum per ignem.

The ſtory and procesſe agaynt

Walter Brute.

A ſtore ſtory of william Swinderby, I thought good and conuenient, next to aduoyce the dioces and voyngeſ of Walter Brute his ioycet fellow and companion, being a lay man, and learned: brought vpp as he ſcarched in the Univerſitie of Oþfode, being thereto alſo grauduate. The traſtaſion of whole diſcouerſe alſo is ſomething long, in theſcinc may appere diuers thinges worthy to be read and conſidered.

First, þy mighty operation of gods ſpiriſt in hym, his ripe knowledge, modell ſimplicite, his valiant couraſie, by his learned traſtaſions and maniſtule conſideracions ſhowne agaynt Gods enemis. On the contrary part, in his conuerlayres may appere, might agaynt right, vniouenſt, and horribile agaynt plaine veritiſe: againſt which they haue nothing direc't to anſweſe, prouerde in conuictioun agaynt whiche they are able to bring forud no conuictioun. The chiefet reuacion that ſeeme to ſhewe, doþ the heart and zeale of this Walter agaynt. The pope, was the argeſtent pardons and indulgenſes of Pope Clemene, graunduer to Henry Biſhop of Hereford to fight againſt pope Clement, mentioned before pag. 428. Secondie the ful condamnation of the articles and conciliations of William Swinderby, the whiche pider wherof in the procesſe here following more playnly may appere.

The procesſ had by Bohn Biſhop of Hereford, agaynt Walter Brute lay man, and learned, of the dioces of Hereford, touching the caufe of heretiſe, as they called it, ſet forward by the way of the Biſhops office, &c. at the instruction of certaine faithful Christians, as he termed them, but in deed, cruelle and false pro-motors.

In þe name of God, Amen. To all maner of faithfull christian people that haue ſee and haue heard this moſt paſte. John by þe ſufferance of God biſhop of Hereford ſent þe greeting & conuentual charcie in þe Lord. We would þe you al ſhould know, that of late by many fauouerable chris-tian people, & ſpecially zealous followers of the catholike faith, it was hanterably done vs to vnderſtand by way of complaint: that a certain ſome of ours going out of hund, named Walter Brute lay person, learned, of our dioces, hath vnder a cloked ſhew of holynes, danibly ſeduſe the people, & ſetting behind him þe feare of God, doth ſeduſe them as much as he caſt day to day, informing & teaching openly and priuily, as wel the nobles as the communes, in certaine conciliacions heretical, ſchismatical, and erroneous & alio heretofore condenmed. And they haue alſo probably exhibited againſt þame walter, articles vnder wriſte, in maner and forme as followeth.

Articles exhibited and denouced to the biſhop, againſt Walter Brute.

Reuerend facher and Lorde, to the faþyfull people of Christ, & zealous louers of the catholike faith, and alſo your humble and deuout childefon: do minifter & exhibite to your reverend facherhood, the articles vnder wriſte, touching þe catholike faith, contrary and againſt malicious persons, & detracutors of the ſame faith, & the determina-tions of holy mother church, & namely againſt the childe of Belial, one Walter Brute, a faſle teacher and ſeductor among þe people. Higly detracching, þe you would vouchſafe to haue regard to þe correction of the enemities vnder wriſte, according vnto þe Canonical conſtitutions, cuen as to your offiſe paſtoral dore þy and belongeth.

In primis, we do geue and exhibite ameſted to þrone, The first article, that the ſame Walter Brute being vnmindfull of his falſation, hath bene by many and diuers faþyfull Christian people ſundry times accuſed of the cauſes of heretiſe: As by the ſwift report, fladde, and rumour of the people, pro-ceeding before the moſt reverend facher & Lorde, Lord William Archb. of Canterbury, and alſo before the reverend facher & Lorde, Lord John late Biſhop of Hereford, your prede-
