

Sentence geuen for the burning of Wickliffes bones.

John wickliffe, and his 45. Articles was recited, and sentence geuen agaynst his memoery & bones to be burned. The tenor wherof is rehearsed in the history of John wickliffe befoze passed. fol. 449.

In the 9. Session, The matter & cause of Pope John was agayne intreated, and commissioners appoynted to enquire vpon his cause, and iudges for the same.

In the 10. Session, Suspension was geuen out & reade agaynst the sayd Pope.

In the 11. and 12. Sessions, Notaries were assigned & definitive sentence geuen agaynst the said Pope, wher also was decreed that none of them that contended befoze for the Papacy, should be chosen Pope.

In the 13. Session was decreed, Quod nullus p[re]biter sub pena excommunicationis comunicet populo sub vtraque specie panis & vini. This is, that no Priest vnder payne of excommunication shall communicate vnto the people vnder both kindes of bread and wine.

In the 14. Session, came in y<sup>e</sup> resignation of pope Gregory the 11. which was one of the 3. befoze mentioned, striving for the Papacy, with certayne other Articles concerning the election of the Bishop of Rome, and the ratification of their resigning, which gaue ouer the Papacy.

Then ensueth the 15. Session, in the which silence was commanded on all partes vnder paine of excommunication, and the great curse that no peris or persons high or lowe of what estate or degre to euer he were, Emperour, King, Cardinal, or other should disturbe the sayd Session with any manner of noise, either by hand, foot, or voyce. This being done, the sentence & condemnation agaynst John Hus was read and published, whiche after in the story of John Hus, foloweth to be seene more at large.

In the 16. Session, Ambassadors were assigned by the Council to go into Arragon to Benedictus the 13. to entreat with him for the resignation of his Papacy, as the other two had done befoze.

Item, power was geuen to iudges, to cite vnder paine of deprivation, all such as priuily departed away from the Council, in the which Session also the sentence agaynst John Hus was confirmed and ratified.

In the 17. Session, the Emperour tooke vpon him a iourney to the king of Arragon, to entreat with pope Benedictus. An excommunication denounced agaynst al such as should go about to impeche the Emperours iourney about that matter. &c.

Item, prayrs and processions were determined to be made by the Council, euery Sunday for the same cause, with an hundred dayes of pardon geuen to the that would be present thereat, and that all Priests should be present at euery of these sayd Masses and processions in they<sup>r</sup> parochialibus. Waunting besides to euery Priest that sayd one Masse, for the same a 100. dayes of pardon. And to all other that once a day should say one Pater noster, and one Ave, for the safety of the Emperour xl. dayes of pardon.

In the 18. Session, certayne iudges were assigned for the hearing of matters, which the Council had no leasure to heare.

It was there also decreed that suche letters and Bulls as were written in the name of that council, should be received with no lesse credite and authority, then the Bulles proceeding from the Sea Apostolicall, and that the falsifiers of the same should incurre no lesse penalty then the falsifiers of the other. Legates also and Ambassadors were sent into Italy.

In the 19. Session which was y<sup>e</sup> same yeare in the moneth of September, Jerome of Prage who was cited as is befoze sayd, was accused of heresy & cast in prison by the sayd council, & constrainned to abjure. The which his abinuation hereafter foloweth to be seene in his history.

Item, it was decreed: Quod non obstantibus saluis cõditibus Imperatoris Regum. &c. possit per iudicem competentem de hæretica prauitate inquiri. &c. That is, notwithstanding y<sup>e</sup> safe conduct geuen by the Emperour and kings. &c. Inquiry may be made agaynst a man for heresy by a sufficient iudge and processe, to be made according to the law.

The causes of heresies were committed to certam iudges and deputies.

Item, the Chart called Carolina, and diuers other Chartes and constitutions concerning the libertyes of the Church of Rome, being brought forth were approued and confirmed.

In the 20. Session, letters & instrumentes were made and set vpon Church dozes to require and admonish duke Fredericke, to restore agayne vnto George Bishop of Austriche, such landes, rences, and reuenues as he deteyned & withheld, vnder payne of interdicement, suspending and excommunication.

During the time of this Session, the Ambassadors returned out of Arragon from the Pope Benedict and were heard with great audience, whereas certayne Articles and conditions betwene the Pope & the council were brought forth and agreed vpon to the number of 12.

In the yeare of our Lord 1416. was the 21. Session beginning after they<sup>r</sup> maner with a Masse of the holy ghost with processions and such other rites, in the time of which Masse, James Bishop of Lonby made a Sermon, taking for his Theme these wordes. Exprobrauit Deus incredulitatem eorum & duritiam: That is, the Lord rebuked they<sup>r</sup> misbeliefe and hardnes. &c. This sermon being ended, Jerome of Prage which had abjured, as is sayd the yeare befoze, being present thereat, stode vp vpon a certayne bench or fourme. Replying agaynst the foresayd James and bys Sermon, alleading and preaching diuers and sundry things, whereupon the Patriarch of Constantinople, one of the commissioners proceeded agaynst him, pronouncing the sentence definitive, which he had in writing agaynst the sayd Jerome, which sentence being red and approued by the council (the tenor wherof inueth in his history) the sayd Jerome was deliuered vnto the secular power, & burned.

The 22. and 23. Sessions contayne no worthy matter, but onely the placing of the Ambassadors of Alphonsus K. of Arragon, & granting them voyces in the Council.

In the 24. Session, citatio was geuen out agaynst Benedict, keeping with Alphonus, king of Arragon.

The 25. Session conteineth nothing but a certayne Comendam geuen to the Church of Olemucenis.

The 26. Session, there was nothing els handled, but the vniing and incorporating of the Ambassadors of the king of Nauarre into the Council, and also concerning the derogation of the priority of voyces.

After this folowed the 27. and 28. sessions, which were in the yeare 1417. wherein was intreated the relation and declaratio, concerning the cause betwixt Duke Frederick, and the bishop of Trident, and processe geuen our agaynst the sayd Duke, accusing him of sacrilege, and also excommunicating him, for not obeying the admonitio of the council concerning the vsurpation and deteyning of the city of Trident and other possessions from Bishop George, as is afoze specified.

In the 29. and 30. Sessions, Doctours and Notaries were geuen out in the cause agaynst Pope Benedict, and order decreed vpon his obstinacy, wherein also the withdrawing of the king of Arragon from the same Pope, was recited and approued by the Council.

In the 31. Session, certayne instrumentes, and speciall letters monitory were directed from the Council to a certayne Earle of Italy named Comes virtutum, for laying violent handes vpon Albert, Bishop of Aste, and for bringing him to prison, requiring the sayd Earle vnder paine of interdiction, and excommunication to let the sayd Bishop at liberty. Also an other decree was set forth for the restoring agayne the libertyes of the Church of Baron.

In the 32. and 33. Sessions, the accusation of pope Benedict was renued, and his obstinacy accused, and witnes brought in, at which thing doing, the Emperour Sigismund was present.

In the 34. Session, the cause of the foresayd Pope was heard, and processe geuen out agaynst him.

In the 35. Session, the Ambassadors of the king of Castile were brought in, and vnted to the Council, and instrumentes thereof made and read. Also that notwithstanding the othes made to the foresayd Pope, mē might lawfully forsake his obedience.

In the 36. Session, a certayne citation was made and read agaynst the Pope, conteinung his deprivation and the sentence agaynst him, & instrumentes made vpon the same. And whereas this Pope had thundred out his curses, deprivations and excommunications agaynst them: The sayd Sinode did admirabile all his doinges.

The 37. Session did renue agayne the accusation of the foresayd pope, and the sentence definitive agaynst him was published.

In the 38. Session certayne decrees were made touching the annullating of the penalties of the Ambassadors of king Henry sonne of Alphonsus king of Arragon. Also an other decree was made touching the renouatio of y<sup>e</sup> voyces graunted to the Ambassadors of the king of Arragon.

Thus Pope Benedict being deposed and excommunicated as is afozesayd, in the next Sessions following, they addressed themselves to the election of a new Pope, beginning first in the 39. Session to geue out decrees concerning generall Councils, & prouision, for the auoyding of suche like schismes hereafter. Decreeing euery x. yeare to haue a general

21. } Ann. } 1416. }

Jerome of Prage replied agaynst the sermon of the Bishop of Londy.

22. 23.

24.

25.

26.

27. 28. } Anno. } 1417. }

29. 30.

31.

32. 33. } Pope Benedict accused. }

34.

35.

36. } The Pope curseth the council. }

37.

38.

39.

Decrees for generall council.

The people of Christ excommunicated from the communion of the holy cup.

The solemn publishing of the sentence of condemnation agaynst I. Hus.

The Emperours iourney into Arragon.

Pardons were here dogge cheape.

Concilium Fœderatum.

And how chaunceth it that the charte of Constantines donation is not here mentioned.

Prouide that the churchmen loose nothing in no case.